HOW TO GET THERE

By air

Francisco Sá Carneiro airport, in Porto, is 202 kilometres from the Historic Village of Mariava, and Humberto Delgado airport, in Lisbon, is 247 kilometres from the Historic Village of Castelo Novo. Barajas airport in Madrid is 359 kilometres from the Historic Village of Almeida. From the airports there are several road links and public transport for easy access to the 12 Historic Villages of Portugal.

By train

The Beira Baixa line and the Beira Alta line are the main railways used to access the Historic Villages of Portugal.

By bus

The National Bus Network (Rede Nacional de Expressos) provides links to towns and cities surrounding the Historic Villages of Portugal, providing easy access to them.

By car

- The A23 is to the south, with easy access to five Historic Villages of Portugal: Idanha-a-Velha, Monsanto, Castelo Novo, Belmonte and Sortelha;
- To the north, the A25 gives easy access to the Historic Villages of Linhares da Beira, Castelo Mendo and Almeida (with a connection to Castelo Rodrigo). The IP2 gives access to the Historic Villages of Trancoso and Marialva;
- From the coast, take the IP3 or IC6 and exit at the Côja junction for access to the Historic Village of Piódão;
- From Spain, the access routes to the Historic Villages of Portugal are the A62, crossing the border at Vilar Formoso, and EX-A1, crossing the border at Monfortinho.
